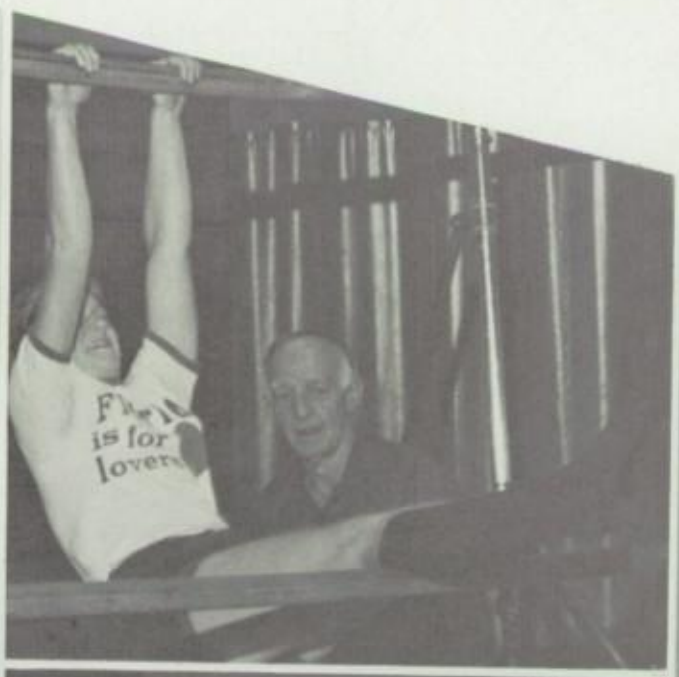
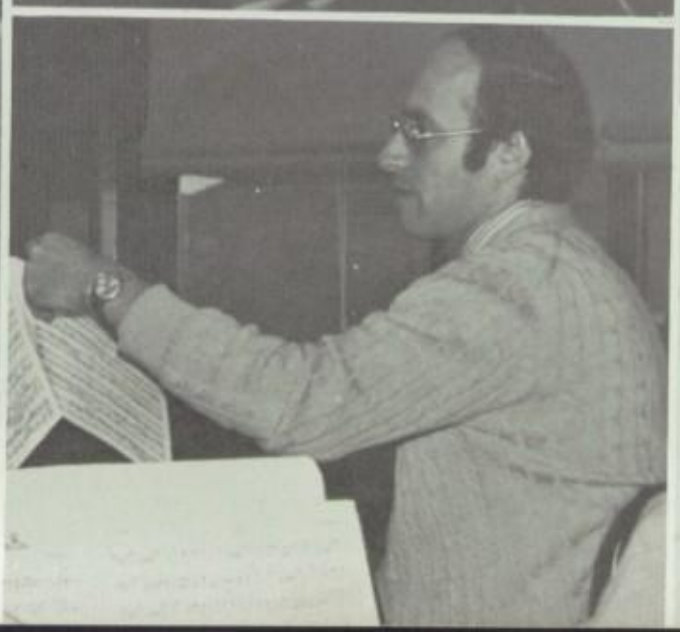
FACULTY





IN DEDICATION

Jack Seskin

As the 1980's signify a new beginning, it also represents a new start for one of our faculty. Jack Seskin has been a teacher in this district for 24 years and a member of the high school faculty for 17 years. Besides establishing himself as an excellent teacher, he also coached the Varsity Wrestling team for 10 years, worked as advisor for the Athletic Association for 11 years, and was advisor of the old school newspaper "The Passing Bell" for numerous years.

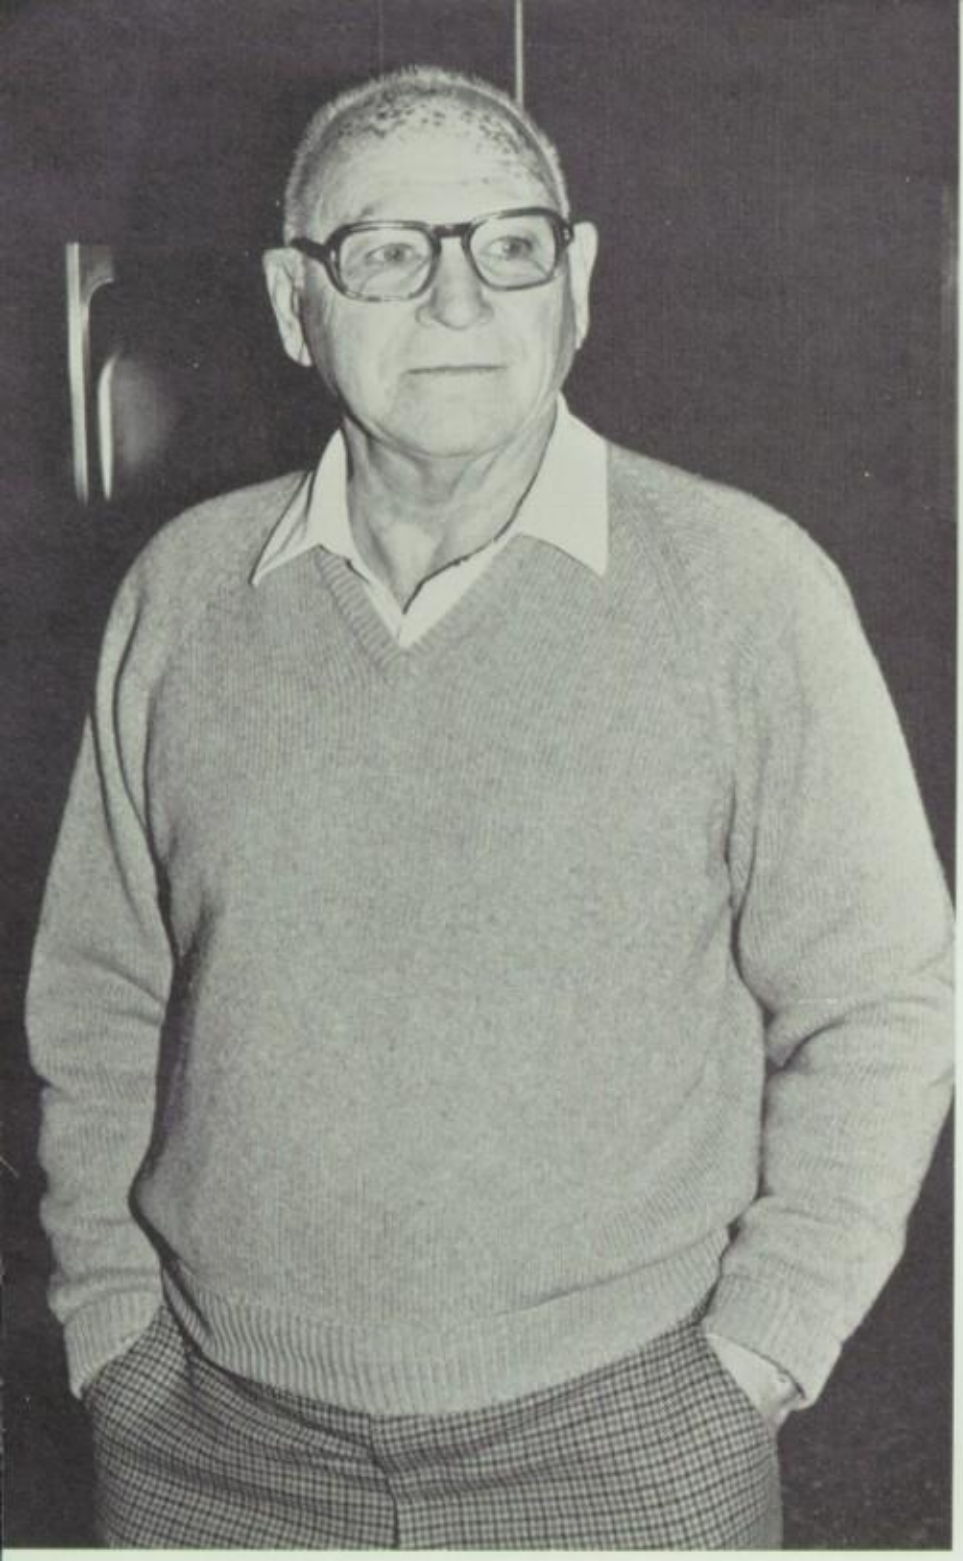
Mr. Seskin received his Master's degree in teaching at the University of Buffalo. He also has done work at the University of Glascow and was a Medical student at Anderson College of Medicine in Scotland until World War II. His other accomplishments include being the recipient of five National Science Foundation Grants for the study of meteorology and astrology.

Teaching and science have only been a fraction of this unsung hero's life. Unknown to most of us, before entering the teaching profession he was a journalist for the London Daily Express, the Providence Evening Bulletin, and the Buffalo Evening News.

At one time he also was News Editor for WKBW and has had articles published in many British magazines and newspapers. Somewhere in this busy life, he also managed to be a dairy bacteriologist for the Sealtest Corporation.

As a teacher, Mr. Seskin's love for science always showed through. His concept of teaching was hard and demanding but left students with a rewarding knowledge. His stern image melts away when you see him smile, and his method of teaching was, in a way, teaching us the self-motivation, responsibility, and maturity we would need in our adult years. Very rarely do you hear one of Mr. Seskin's students say they regretted having him because they know and appreciate the opportinity they were given to learn under such a fine teacher.

To Jack Seskin, we wish you luck in your new beginning and hope you always have the fondest memories of the members of the Orchard Park High School, for we shall always think the world of you.



SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

IN MEMORY OF

George Robert Rudroff

Some of my fondest memories of Bob Rudroff or "Rudy" were in school. Everyone could always seek help and advice from him.

Bob always had a sense of humor exceeded by no one. All one had to do is ask a former student; he loved his classes so much.

Some of my best times with "Rudy" occurred outside the school environment. He was always a participant at our faculty "stag" parties and was always interested in trying a "new" eating establishment.

These were all good times, but the best times of all were when a group of his friends were invited to his house. We would inevitably wind up in his family room where he had a player piano. We would gather around and sing songs while he played the rolls. Of course we all knew his favorite, which when played will always remind us of Rudy. We all miss him very much!

After going two years without a school play, Pippin was a sight for sore eyes. Through the guidance of Mr. Paolini, Ms. Dagostino, and Mrs. Keenen-Takagi, students were able to make this endeavor extremely successful. Many fine performances were turned out, including those of junior Jon Vogan (Leading Player), senior Gerry Floriano (Pippin), and senior Linda Mutton (Catherine).

IN MEMORY OF AL JENSEN

Save me a soft warm tomorrow,
and I'll give you all my yesterdays.

All the forgotten dreams
and desires of the past, Gone!

Save tomorrow and,
I'll give you all my love.

Together we'll walk through oceans of clover and clear blue skies
to a world of:
dreams
& peace
& beauty

Save me a soft warm tomorrow
for my winter is almost here
when tomorrows
will quickly
disappear. —A. J.

Chapter VIII: Of the good fortune which the valorous Don Quixote had in the terrifying and never-before-imagined adventure of the windmills, along with other events that deserve to be suitably recorded. .

"God, help us!' exclaimed Sancho, 'did I not tell your Grace to look well, that those were nothing but windmills, a fact which no one could fail to see unless he had other mills of the same sort in his head?'"

Many were the days when we talked of nothing but "windmills" and "what if . . . " Al Jensen was the kind of man who invited such thoughts and begged us take part in the discourse. He entreated both colleagues and students to share in a wider scope than four walls of a classroom. He made an earnest request that we all look deeper into ourselves and that we take a good look while we're there. For each of us shares the happiness, the shame, the pride and the pain . . .

" . . . And if I do not speak of my sufferings, it is for the reason that it is not permitted knights—errant to complain of any wound whatsoever . . ."

Often were the times he would close his door to listen to the smallest of problems which seemed to us insurmountable. He was the master craftsman of sharing "entre nous." His work was his bond every time he assured us, "maybe it would help to talk about it, maybe we can find an answer . . . " And if you took the time to know Al Jensen, the man, not the counselor, you'd know just how untimely was his passing. He was a young man who experienced darkness, losing his sight temporarily, only to be granted an even more ephemeral second chance . . .

He renewed his faith in people and vowed to try even harder to assist in whatever way possible. And many were the days he would suffer the indignity of others who didn't understand him or who couldn't "figure that guy out." Always there were days he would protect the feelings of his "squires," his students, his little friends, often accepting full blame himself. Never were the days when he might have mentioned his own unhappiness, his own loss of physical energy, his own true disappiontments in life. We knew him only as a man who believed in life no matter what would befall him. He always believed in you . . . whatever you wanted to be, for always or for the moment.

If only Al could yet wield his mighty sword and comfort us and tell us how to look at the bright side of things. If only we could hear another Friday afternoon joke or see that devilish grin after delivering the punch line. To enjoy once again the lingering fragrance of his pipe. And, oh, that warm, friendly smile which awaited us at the doorway of House Three. One fragile floating snowflake and he'd predict, "SNOW DAY tomorrow!!" And then stretch it to two days on sight of a second flake!

Al lived every precious day to its fullest and had no regrets for "today;" he knew tomorrows are promised to no one.

Breaking a fifteen year drought, the maroon and white won a football title by going 7-1 during the regular season. By crushing Hamburg 40-3 in a physical and emotional explosion, O.P. clinched the division cbampionship in the last game. The O.P. defense was ranked number 1 in Division II, allowing only 37 points during the 8 game schedule.

Coach Policare's troops have turned O.P.'s football fortunes around the last two seasons, achieving 12 wins, 3 losses and 3 ties in its last 18 games. In the Section VI playoffs at Rich Stadium, O.P. played what has been called " the greatest game ever" against a big North Tonowanda team to a 14-14 tie, but then lost to an overtime field goal. The team is ranked 25th in New York State. O.P. has now established itself as a legitimate state football power.

This was the first Girls Varsity Soccer team in Orchard Park's history. The players worked extremely hard and made tremendous progress in their skills and play. The team joined an existing league and still enjoyed a relatively successful season. The team gained the respect of each opponent and received many compliments from coaches and spectators alike. Overall it was a very productive season for the girls and should be even better next year.

GRADUATION

Both joy and sorrow are the fate
of students about to graduate,
For the scene is sad when friends must part,
But joyous too, and glad at heart
O'er victories won and a new life to come.
So it's hail and farewell, as one by one
Each faces the future, and challenges where with faith, hope and courage, and an extra dare.
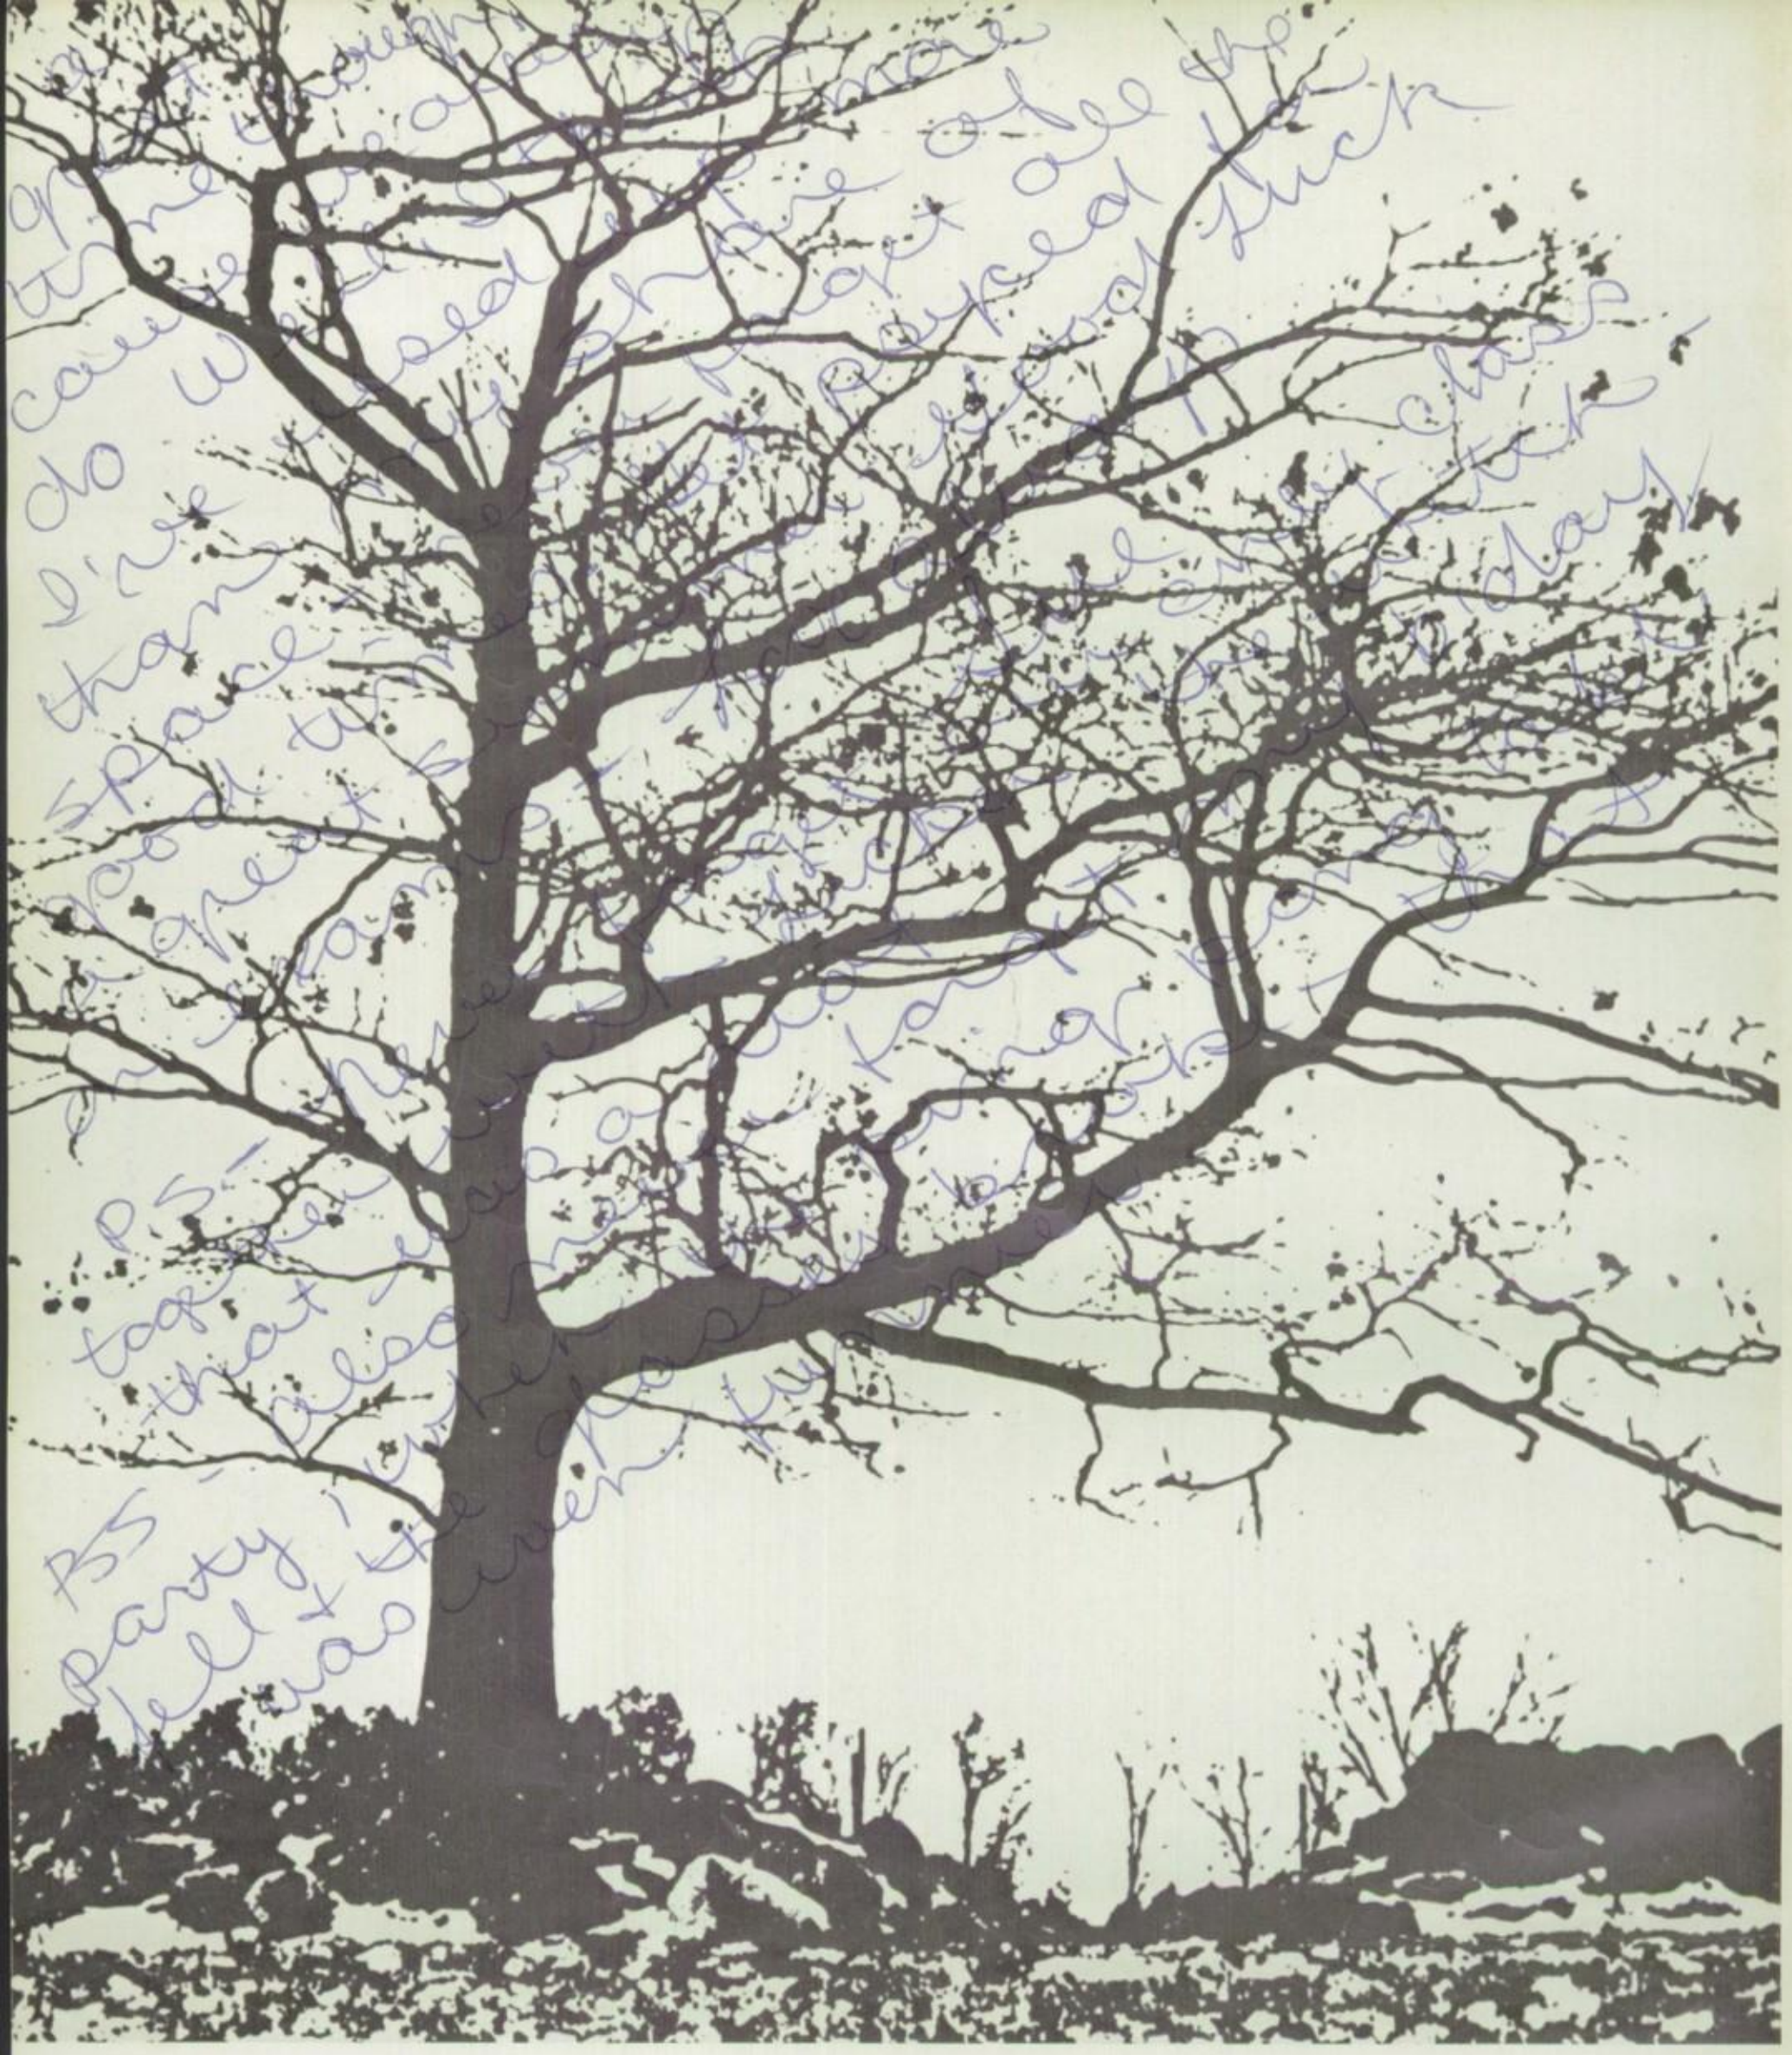
The world waits to welcome the good that you share.

by
Frieda Bair



The staff is especially grateful to Mrs. Dechert, Mr. Habicht, Mr. Cona and Mr. Reimers, who dedicated their time and patience to this book. The entire staff worked with much hard work and cooperation, making this endeavor a successful one.

Sue,

I so happy I moved to Meadowbrook. If it hadn't been for you guys I might be best friends with my shadow. For the longest time I felt it hard to talk to you but now I feel like I could tell you just about any thing. Remember our phone conversations, duck, duck Goose, all the parties, and all the times we spent the night. I'm just so happy that you are my friends! I can be myself around you and that means alot. I would be satisfied if I could live here with "y'all" and be 17 forever. I better quit ramblin' on or I'll write the whole page! I love you dearly not queerly! Love Celeste Lykas SR. 81

P.S. Red, white + blue - I'm American!

Sue-

Hi! I'm so glad that you got a job at the library otherwise we wouldn't have become friends. Wouldn't that have been a tragedy? ANYWAY- even though the job blows we had "working" (talking is more like it) together. You are such a sweetie, I hope you never change, but please don't become like your mother (just teasing- where's your vacuum cleaner? All over Freeman Rd., you say?) I also hope that we're in more classes together next year w/o LICKER!! Good luck next year and in college!

Love,

Joan

THE OVER-CONFIDENT PAGE

Well, I had a great year, forget some of the great times we had (the parties or the dance, the summer nights up at Dick + Kathy's, the weekends at the Dunes, the parties or around town, and the parties we threw ourselves) and remember our all our great so-called diets and the rating we started which usually came about 2 days after we started them, and that little explosion in the night, the getting a ticket, and the summer we'll never forget. We're going to have a great year!! Friends always and

Dear Joan,

It was nice hearing from you. I'm glad you're doing well. Summer was fun. Remember the time we went to Kentucky Derby? Remember the time we went to Cincinnati? Remember the time we went to Indiana? Remember the time we went to Dunes? Remember the time we went to Dunes? Remember the time we went to Dunes

Sue,

Yes, this was a truly different year indeed. I'm glad I got to know you cuz you're really interesting at times... even downright strange. But be good and have a great summer! See ya —

Love,

Carol

Sue,

It was really nice getting to know you this year. Too bad we were not in more classes together. Have a great summer and I hope to see ya in the fall

Knowing you has been quite an experance. Seen you when you have been sick I've seen you when you've been intoxicated but the real you is the dager in the hall. good luck next year. have a good summer.

see ya in church

Jon

Sue,

Well this year has been the greatest. We have so many things to remember again. We have last summer to remember, w the tent deal & the noises in the pine trees. And the times we tried ~~[illegible]~~ to play tennis & didn't succeed. Remember the time we went over to the mats & Kevin Kuhn sat in the water & then ... — And then his great milk shakes & spagetti. Then we can't forget the great tennis team all the meets, & all the food we ate, ~~[illegible]~~ remember in Jamestown when me & Potter came up to the window of the house where you guys were staying. Then the "big apple" were you had your laughing attack & P'd your pants. And also the deal in the bathroom during the basketball game when the ~~[illegible]~~ toilet overflowed on Ann? Then I came in & you start to scream even more. Then at Sue's birthday, you sat on the pingpong table & broke it & all the glasses. That was so funny. I will never forget that!) Well its been a great year & we can never forget it. We have to have a great summer & have more rowdie times.

See over the summer & goodluck on your exams.

Love always Carolyn
